ADVANCED RESEARCH SEMINAR

Traces of Patriarchal Extermination: Prostitution as Instrument of Normalization of Violence

Director: ESTHER TORRADO MARTÍN-PALOMINO

CALL FOR PAPERS

On 26 and 27th November 2018 will be organized this Advanced Research Seminar (ARS) in collaboration with the University Institute of Women's Studies at the University of La Laguna to disseminate the research results of the projects "Diagnosis about the Situation of Prostitution of Women in Canary Islands" and "Social Perception of the Prostitution of Women in the Canary Islands and Analysis of the Demand of Prostitution" funded by the Canarian Institute of Equality of the Government of Canary Islands.

We intend also to be a vehicle for other feminists research and to debate on public policies that have an impact on these realities. To this end, there will be a communications session that focused on the prostitution of women in any of its variants from an abolitionist, critical and feminist perspective.

People interested in participating with a communication should send an email before 30 September 2018 to the secretariat of the ARS seminar sia.prostitucion@gmail.com, with personal data, title of proposal and a summary of 100 words. Accepted proposals will be communicated before 15 October.

If you want to attend as listener and to be certified by the seminar you must to inscribe at the following link: <https://sede.fg.ull.es/es/evento/detalle/a18120261/seminario-de-investigacion-avanzada-huellas-de-extermio-patriarcal-la-prostitucion-como-instrumento-normalizador-de-violencia>
